Goodrich 30x3 1/2—five Points of Excellence

1. One quality
2. Extra size
3. Specially designed
4. Anti-skid
5. Fair price

The name of Goodrich on a tire means one quality only. Like all other Goodrich tires this 30x3 1/2 is one quality. This standard is a fixed principle, and that quality must be the best our resources, skill and experience can produce.

LOCAL NEWS.

Rude Wilcox visited his home-stand near Lakewood Sunday.

Gib Cowden was here from his ranch near Midland, this week, and reports that country all green but no cattle sales or trades going on.

Ned Godby and Miss Ruth Farrel made a trip to Vaughn Saturday after the car which Mr. Godby was forced to leave at Vaughn on account of the condition of the roads, on his trip down from Colorado last week. On this last trip the roads were pretty bad, but they succeeded in getting in with both cars alright, Sunday afternoon.

Miss Ena Mahan, who has been teaching in the high schools of Sour Lake, Texas, came in Saturday and is the guest of the guest of the family of her father, Rev. T. C. Mahan. Miss Mahan will probably visit here all the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl P. VanDenberg, of Roswell came down Sunday and are looking after their farm down in the Otis section. Mrs. VanDenberg is a talented singer, and favored the audience at the First Baptist church Sunday with a very beautiful vocal number.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hoag has moved from the Hart house on Canyon street to the C. C. Lewis house two blocks north on the same street.

Mrs. John Moore and little daughter, Emily, left on the train Saturday night for New Orleans, where she will be met by her husband, who will accompany her on her return trip back to Tela, Spanish Honduras, Central America, where Mr. Moore is employed by a large construction company, and where they are making their home. This is quite a long trip, and Mr. Moore could only get away from his work long enough to come as far as New Orleans.

Traffic was resumed on the south end of the Santa Fe, the first train going through to Pecos Monday morning. Saturday evening the little "Dinky" gasoline motor car from off the Pecos and Balmorhea road came up and brought several passengers who had been waiting at that end of the line to get to Carlsbad. It is thought now that traffic will be about same as before the flood now for a while, and that people may be able to get out of Pecos in either direction.

The train from the north was delayed several hours Monday on account of high water up in the vicinity of Greenfield, and it became necessary for an extra to be sent up from this end, so that a transfer might be made, it being impossible to get the track fixed so that the main train might pass.

Uncle George Pendleton has returned from a month's vacation which he spent visiting relatives in Brown county. Uncle George says he enjoyed talking to those cotton raisers down there, and that he got plenty of "yaller-legged" chickens while he was gone.

W. W. McAdoo, who is a prominent druggist of Butler, Mo., is in the city, the guest of the family of his brother, G. L. McAdoo.

Mrs. J. G. Usery came in from the ranch Friday and reports good rains all around in that country.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL Sunday School 'Lesson'

(By Rev. F. B. FITZWATER, D. D.,
Teacher of English Bible in the Moody
Bible Institute of Chicago.)
(©, 1921, Western Newspaper Union.)

LESSON FOR JUNE 19.

MAKING THE SOCIAL ORDER CHRISTIAN.

LESSON TEXT—Luke 4:16-21; Matt. 23:23-24.

GOLDEN TEXT—Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.—Matt. 25:40.

REFERENCE MATERIAL—Acts 2:37-41; 3:1-5.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Pleasing Jesus by Helping Others.

JUNIOR TOPIC—The Example Jesus Gave Us.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Making All of Life Christian.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Christianity Transforming the Social Order.

Again we say not "Making the Social Order Christian," if the committee please. At least these texts selected by the committee do not so teach, for they have no bearing upon the question. Why two texts so widely separated in meaning should be selected to go together under the subject named is incomprehensible. The teacher should therefore ignore the subject chosen and endeavor to bring out the meaning of the texts.

1. Jesus in the Synagogue at Nazareth (Luke 4:16-21).

1. His custom was to go to the house of God (v. 16). He now had come back to the town of his boyhood days and entered the place of worship as was His custom.

2. Jesus reading from the Scriptures (vv. 18-19). He opened the book at the sixty-first chapter of Isaiah and read the Scripture passage which set forth His entire mission.

(1) Character of His mission (vv. 18, 19). (a) French the gospel to the poor. God has peculiar regard for the poor, and the glory of the gospel is that it comes to the help of the very ones most in need. It puts a ladder at the feet of a man and enables him to climb as high as his ability will permit him. (b) Heal the broken-hearted. How many are the broken-hearted! (c) Preach deliverance to the captives. Those who are in captivity to sin and Satan. Christ can and will deliver (John 8:34-36). (d) Recovering of sight to the blind. Christ not only can open the physical eyes but the eyes of the spirit as well. (e) Set at liberty them that are bruised. Satan has been most mercilessly bruising men, but the Mighty One has come who can set them free. (f) Preach the acceptable year of the Lord. This was the Year of Jubilee which looked forward to the glorious millennial age (Lev. 25:8-13, 50-54).

(2) His endowment (v. 18). The Holy Spirit came upon Christ for the express purpose of fitting Him for His divine mission. Because of this endowment He cannot fail in His glorious work.

(3) His testimony (vv. 20, 21). Having completed the reading, He declared that the Scripture had fulfilled them and there in himself. This was a critical hour for the people. May it be just as critical for the members of every class where this lesson is studied! May there not be rejection like that which followed His testimony at Nazareth!

11. The Judgment of the Nations (Matt. 25:34-40).

The biblical unit here is verses 31-40. One cannot intelligently teach the verses selected without their setting; so it would be better to take a survey of the whole.

This judgment should be carefully distinguished from what is popularly called "General Judgment." The Bible speaks of different judgments, differing in respect to the subjects, the place, the time, and the results of the judgment. Note the following particulars:

1. The Judge (v. 31). The Son of Man in glory.

2. The time (v. 31). It is when the Lord shall come in His glory accompanied by His glorious retinue of angels.

3. The place (v. 31). It will be on the throne of His glory. This throne will be most surely in the land of Israel. The prophecy of Joel, third chapter, and Zechariah 14:1-5 make it to be in or near Jerusalem.

4. The people judged (vv. 32-40). These people will be the living nations upon the earth after the church has been translated (1 Thess. 4:16, 17). These nations are the ones to whom the gospel of the kingdom shall be preached just prior to the coming of the Lord (see Matt. 24:14). The preachers of this gospel will be Jews (Rev. 7; Rom. 11).

5. The issue of the judgment (v. 40; cf. 34-41). The sheep enter upon the inheritance of a prepared kingdom (v. 34). The goats go into an everlasting fire prepared for the devil and his angels. Their destiny is fixed (v. 40).

Hope and Pray.

Let us hope and pray that those who teach and those who worship in the temples of God may never be out of touch with the saints above or the sinners below. When we get out of touch with humanity, we are never in very close touch with Divinity.—Uncle Henry's Sayings.

On Giving.

He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise.—Luke 3:11.

Mr. Clint Wrend and Miss Cleo Adams were married at the Catholic church in Carlsbad, Friday morning at eight o'clock, and are keeping house in the Bala cottage just north of John T. Bolton, on North Main Street. Mrs. Adams is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Adams, up in the Lakewood country, and Mr. Wrend is head drifter at the Blue Bird oil well south of town.

RETURNS FROM MILITARY ACADEMY.

Clarence Horne arrived Saturday from Staunton, Virginia where he had been attending the Staunton Military Academy for the past term, and was met at the depot by his parents and quite a number of friends.

Clarence comes home with a fine record, and is proud of his "sheepskin" which was given him from the Military Academy, he having finished his "prep" course in that institution with credit to himself.

In addition to this diploma he brings back a medal of reward for having excelled in Military Science. This fact, when it is known that he was in competition with over 600 boys from every state in the Union and every country except Japan, makes the many friends of this young man feel proud of him.

He intends entering Virginia Military Institute at Lexington, Va., in the fall and will take a thorough training in that noted school.

Stonewall Jackson was a professor in this school at the time war was declared and Robert E. Lee was also an instructor in this institution at one time.

General Pershing referred to this school as the West Point of the South, and it is with pleasure that we announce the fact that Clarence is to finish in such a fine institution.

He says the country around where he has been located during the past school term was awfully pretty and that he saw many points of interest while away, but that he feels like he will enjoy a visit at "Home Sweet Home" for a while.

L. G. Ryan was in the first of the week from the Will Murrah ranch and says the range out there is in fine shape. They have been busy branding up the calves.

T. A. Wood was here this week on his initial run for the Kelley-Springfield Tire Co. He was accompanied by T. A. Dwyer, who formerly had this territory, but who has been transferred to Western New Mexico and Eastern Arizona.
